

Nature Recovery Motivation

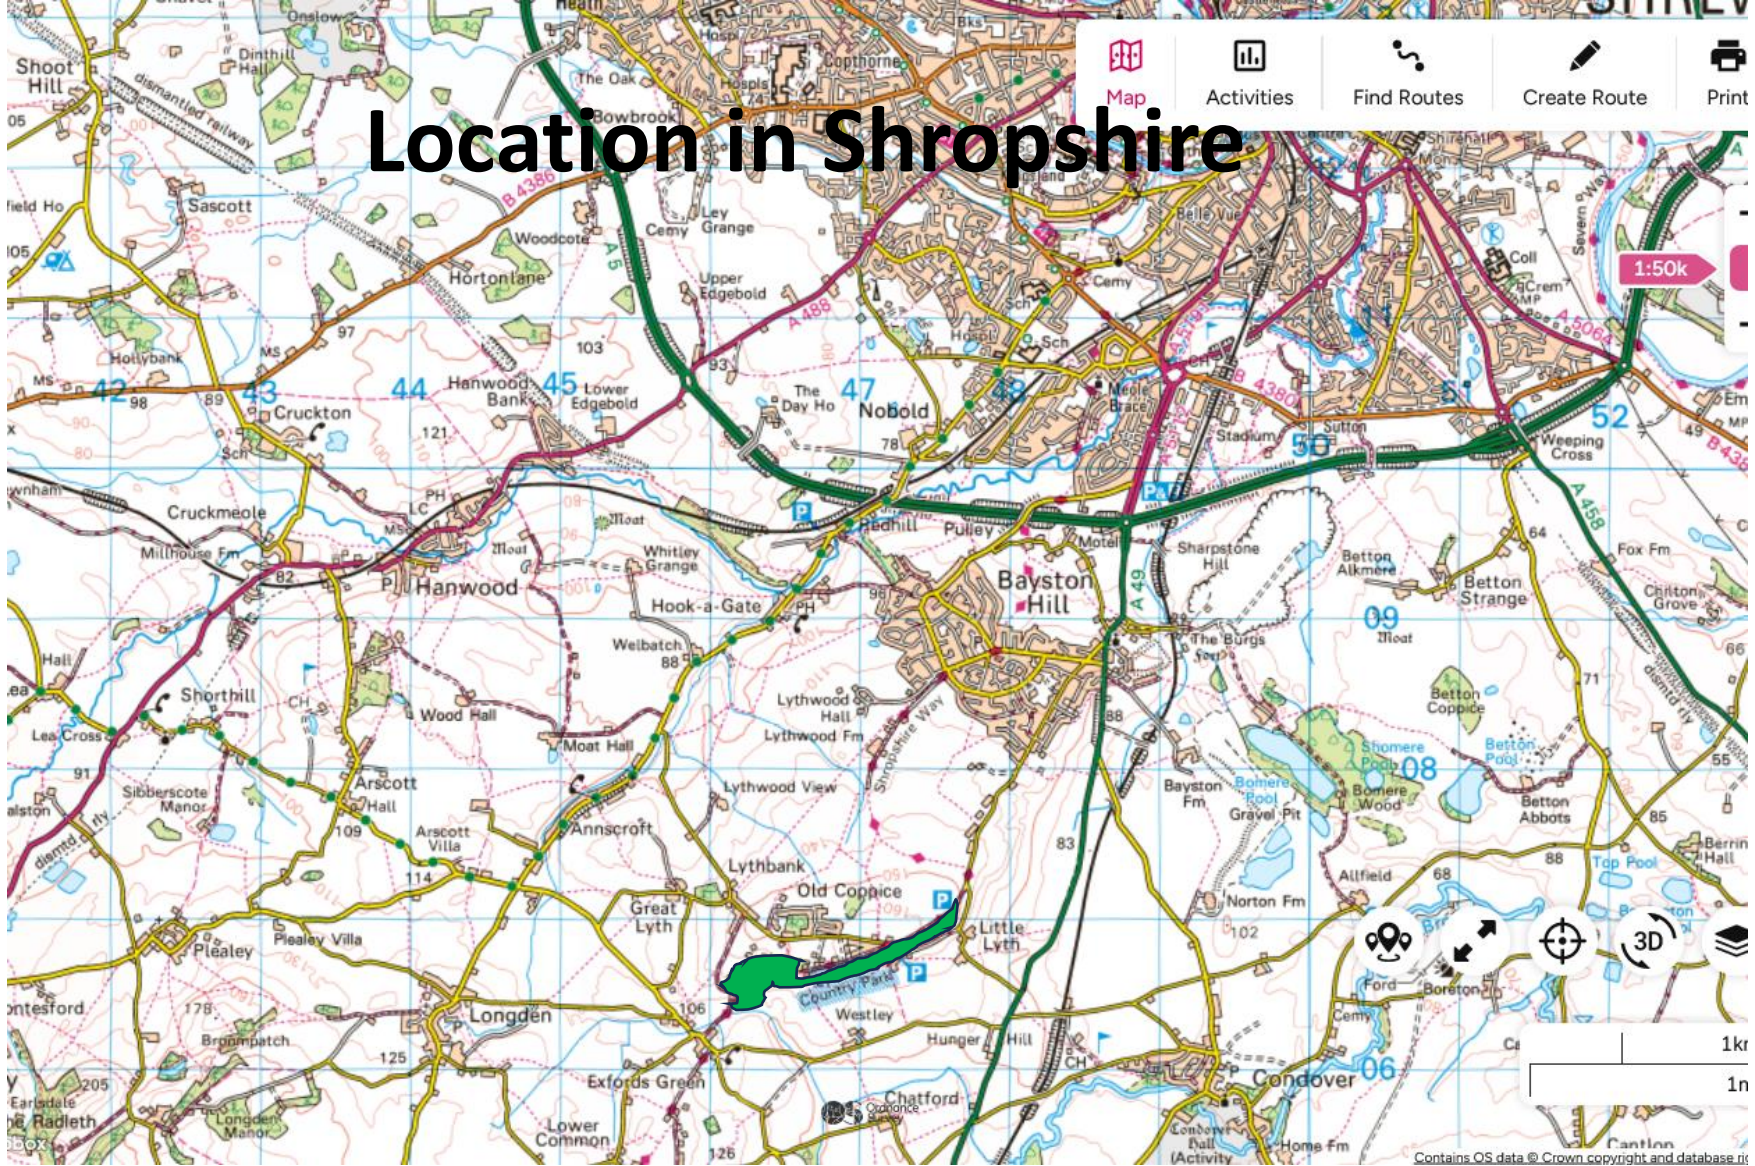

Nature Recovery Projects around Lyth Hill

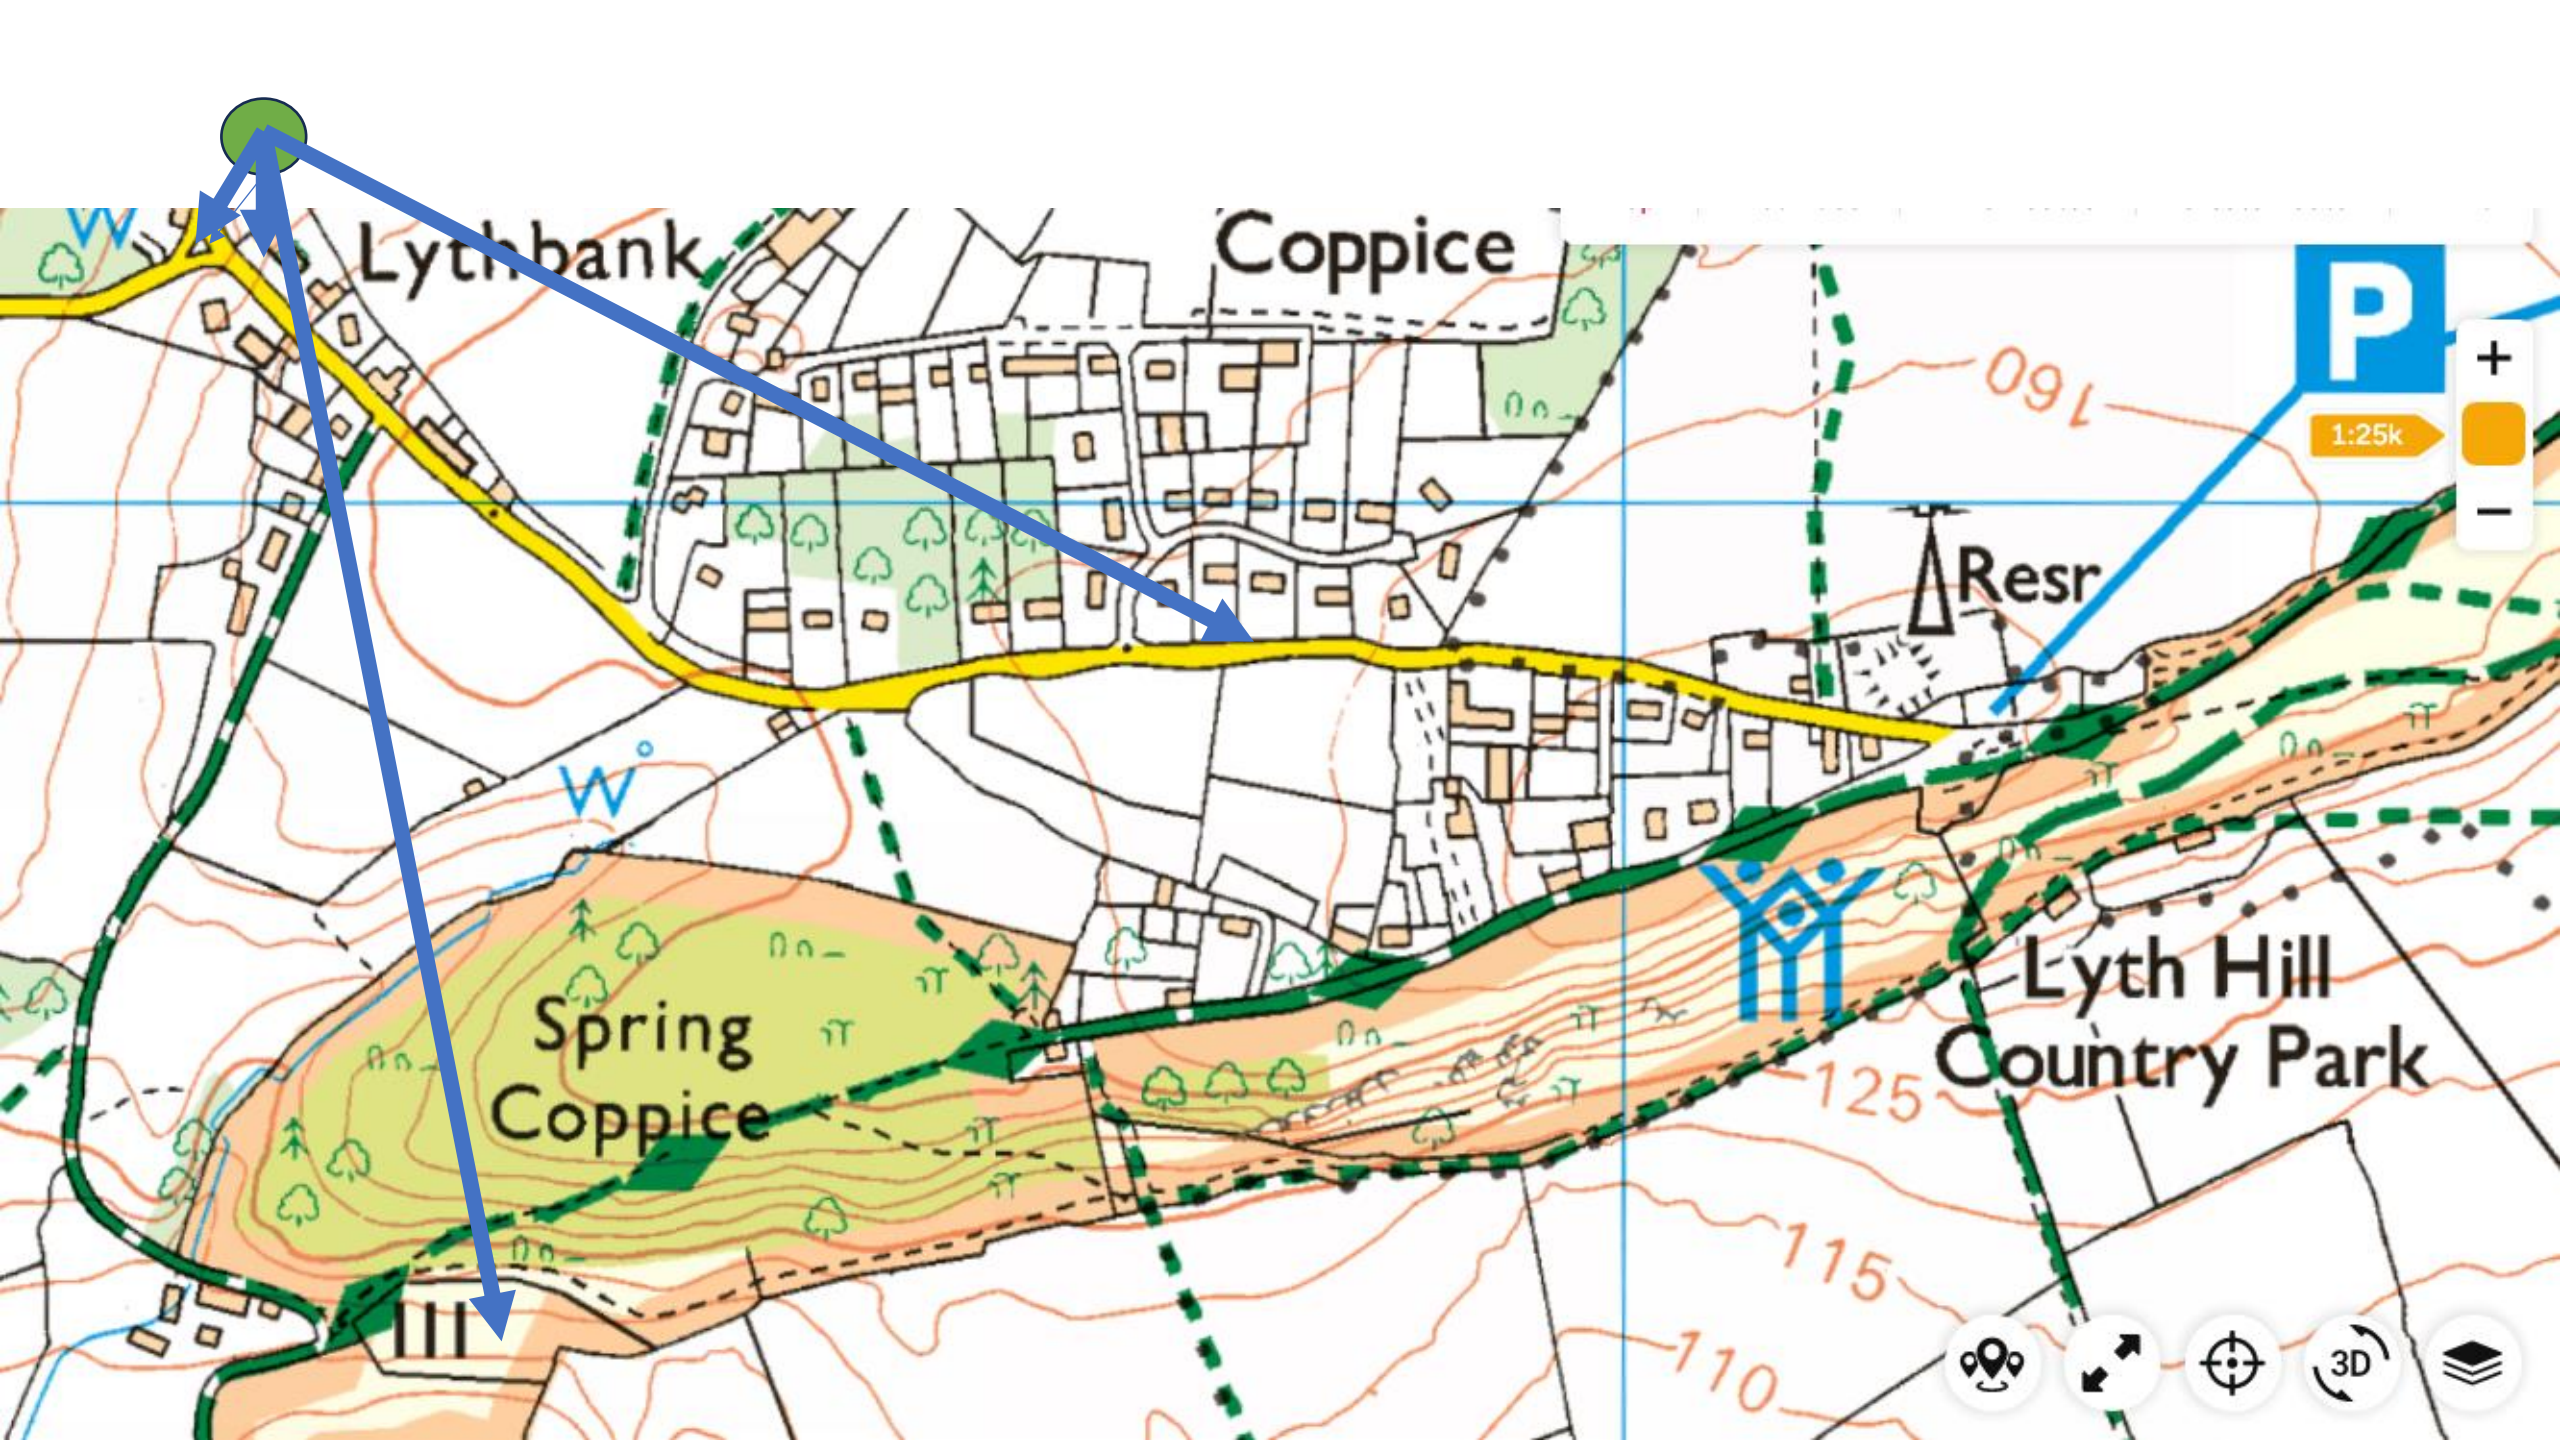

Lyth Bank – Verge improvement working with Restoring Shropshire's Verges Project

Exfords Green – Creation of Hay Meadow and Wetlands

Location in Shropshire

Contains OS data © Crown copyright and database r

Lythbank

Coppice

Spring
Coppice

Lyth Hill
Country Park

P

1:25k

Resr

Lyth Bank Verge Restoration

August 2023

Green Hay Cutting at Pulverbatch

Summer 2024 - Plug Plants and Watering

August 2024

More Mowing!

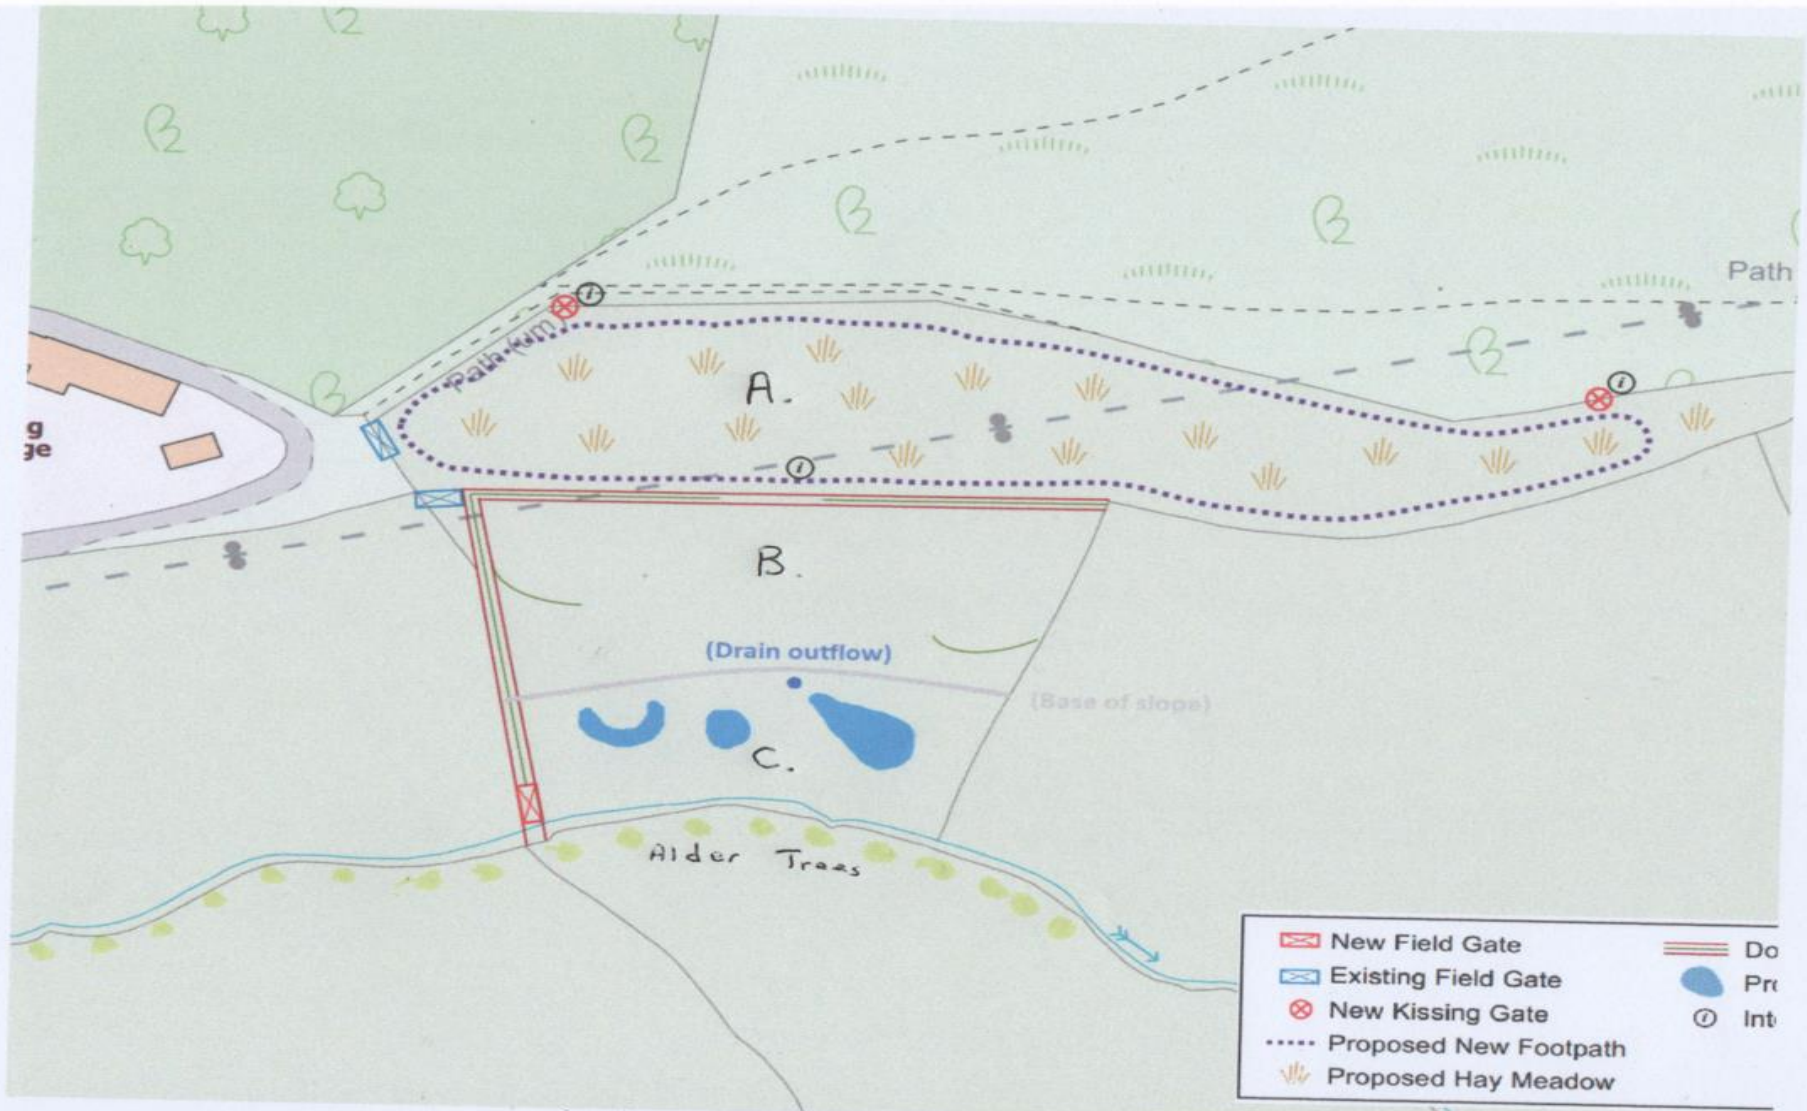

Summer 2024

Yellow Rattle and much else in flower

Exford's Green Biodiversity Project

April 2024

Fencing work in June 2024

Overview of site
June 2024

2024 Timeline

- June - Botanical Survey
- July - Meadow area mowed
- Chain harrowed to expose soil patches
- August -Yellow Rattle seed and green hay from Severn Valley Country Park spread onto the surface
- September -Plug plants of knapweed and betony planted

December 2024

- Planning application for ponds and wetland awaiting resources
- Hedge planting inside double fence due to start soon

2025

- Excavate ponds
- More plug plants including Devil's Bit Scabious
- More green hay?